

Explore The Island of Fiji

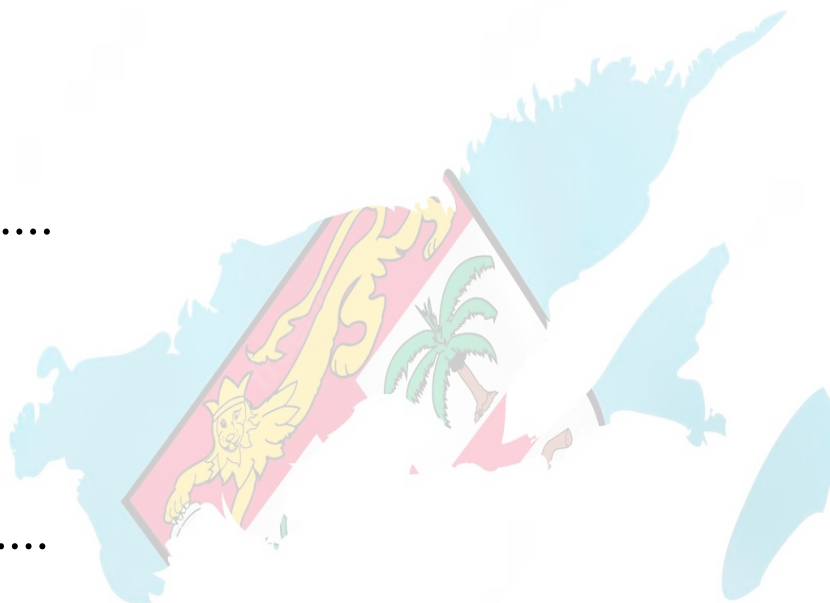

Table Of Content

Old Capital (Levuka)

Shark Feeding (Beqa)

Turtle Calling(Koro)

History Of The Girit And Rewan First Arrival

Old Capital (Levuka)

During 1820 the town of Levuka was founded by European settlers and traders as the first modern town in the Fiji Island, and became an important port and trading post.

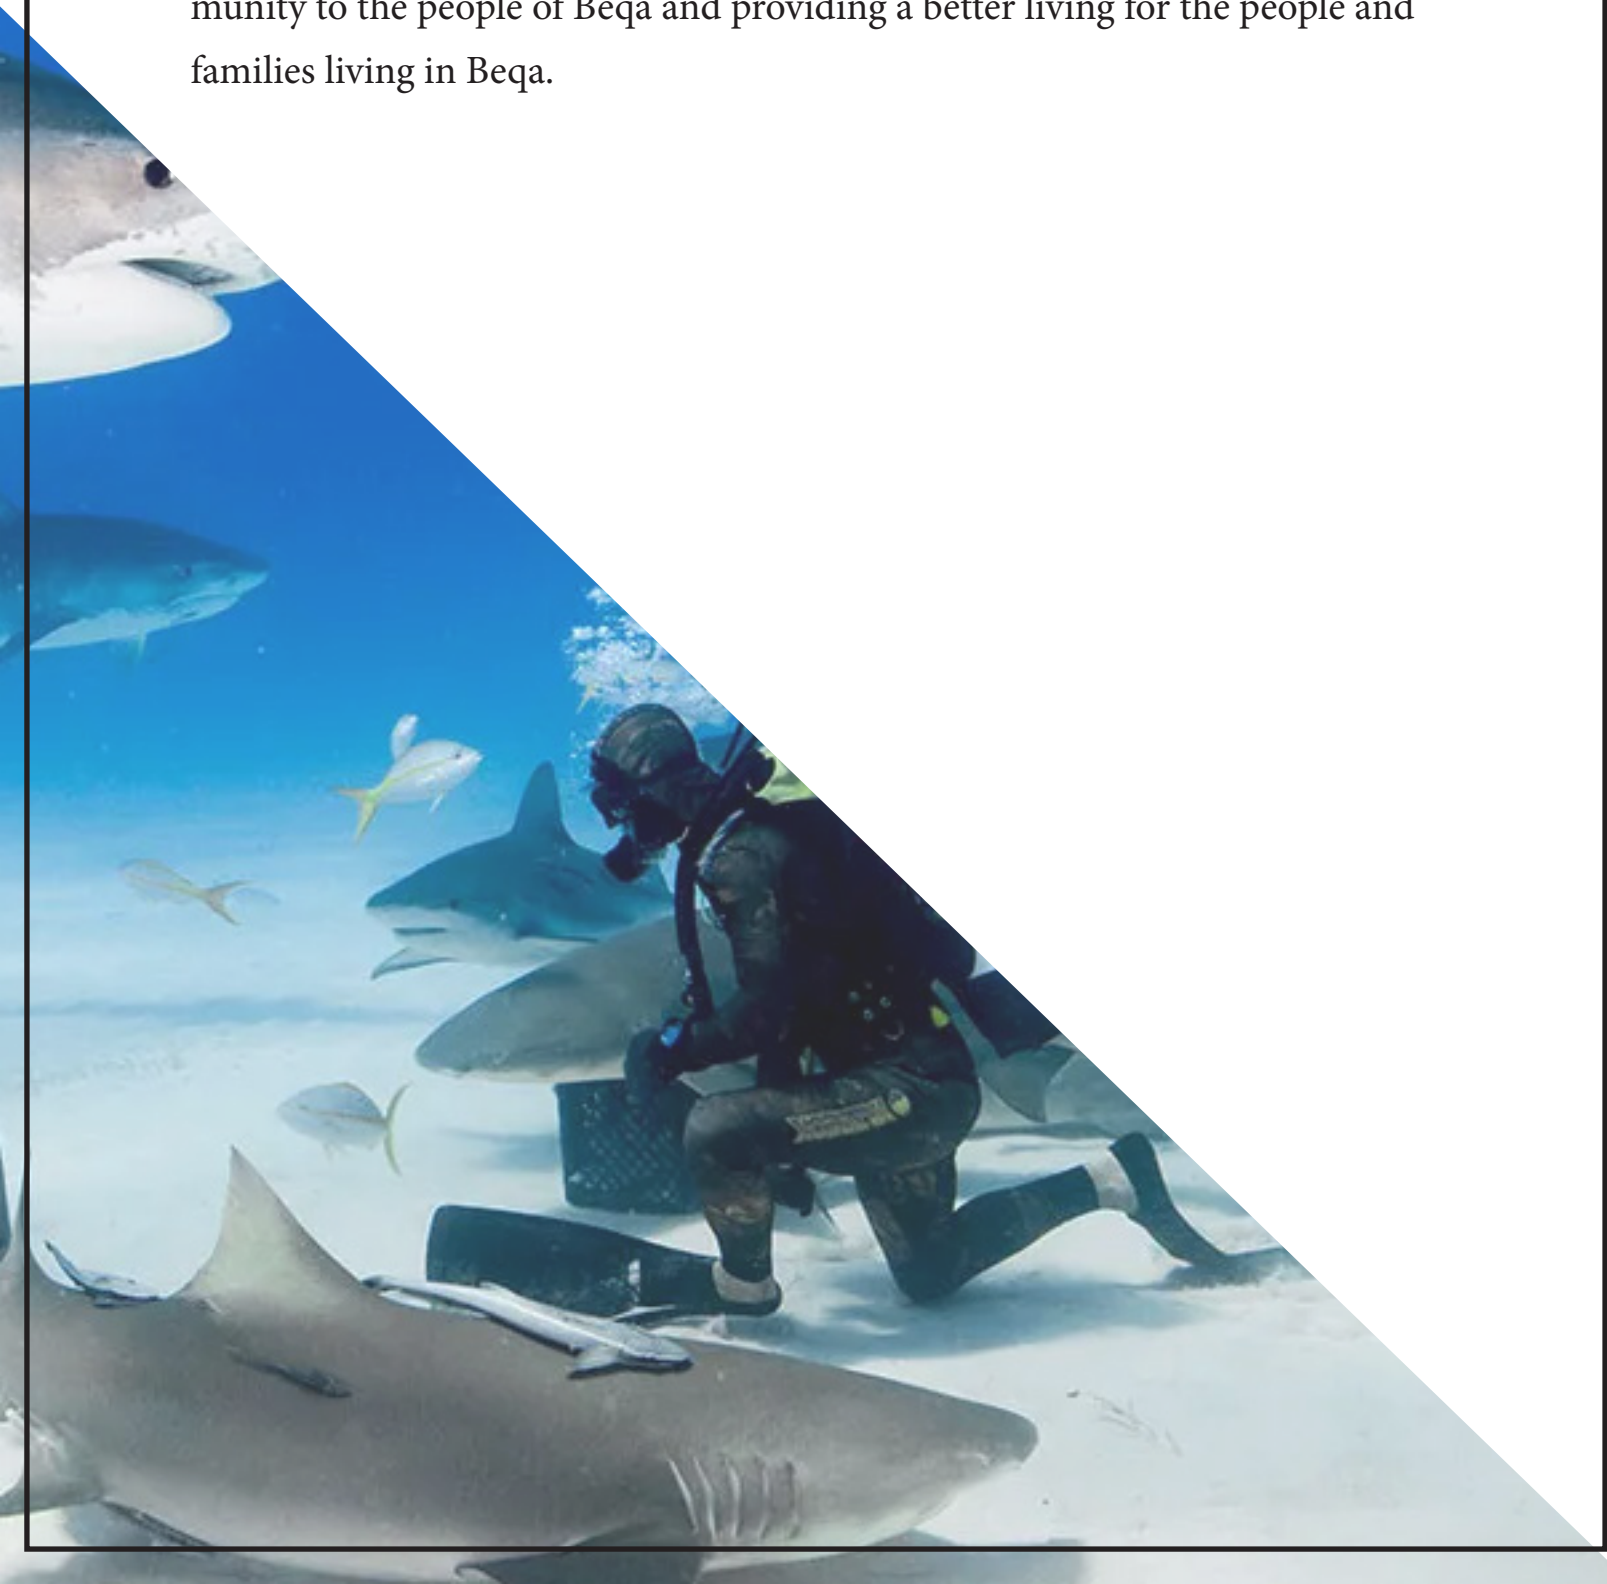

And in 1874 the king of Fiji “Tui Cakobau” and his fellow chiefs decided in 10th October 1874 that Levuka to becoming the first capital of Fiji in honorary to the queen and it becoming a British colony.

But in 1877 colonial authorities decided to move the capital to Suva due to Levuka's location between steep mountain and the sea made any expansion of the town impractical.

Shark Feeding (Beqa)

The Island of Beqa is known in Fiji for many things and one of them is the home of the Tiger Sharks in which they they breed and swim around the Beqa lagoon. And villagers from that Island has used the method of shark feeding has a soruce of income in the modern days to help and build a better community to the people of Beqa and providing a better living for the people and families living in Beqa.

Turtle Calling (Koro)

Island of Koro Gau the people of Nacamaki village was known for the spiritual gift powers that only the people from Nacamaki is capable to do and that is to call and communicate with Turtles, history has it that the people of Nacamaki was well known deepsea fishman and wale hunters that they go to sea for days without and guidness of any modern euipment has an example a compass but putting their full trust on turtles to tell them the way to where school of fishes or a pod of whales are at and the way back to the home village. But nowadays the people use their gift has a tourist entertainment showcasing their spiritual gift on calling hundreds of turtles to swim close to the shoreline of Nacamaki village.

History of Girmit/Rewan first arrival in Fiji

In May 14th 1879 the british government made an agreement with India in 463 indentured labourers to work largely in Fiji greatest income source the sugar cane industries in which they were refered had Girmit.

Along the journey of the ship called Leonidas on 1879 it settled (shipwarcked) in the Island of Rewa and the villagers of rewa saved and rescured the remaining survivors and brought them in has one of their own. But on during the years the Girmit has called themselves has a Rewan bloodline but not to the eyes of the other tribe, until

